10/27/2024

The meeting began at 10:10am

Tom Hughes opened the meeting stating that it was a special joint meeting of NAPS Branch 100 NYC, Branch 164 Flushing and Branch 459 the Bronx. He then turned the meeting over to President Lijia Dyer.

President Dyer introduced Jeff Goldman President Branch 164 Flushing and Christine Bailey President Branch 459 Bronx.

She then asked everyone to rise for the Pledge of Allegiance followed by a moment of silence for deceased members, family, and friends and for all military members serving throughout the world.

She then asked for a motion to suspend the regular order of business since we have Dillard Financial, BC/BS and Aflac here with us today.

Motion by: James Puccio

Seconded by: Kenneth R Stanley

All were in favor by way of voice vote.

Ms. Dyer announced that the following people were in attendance:

Jimmy Warden NAPS National Secretary/Treasurer

Dee Perez NAPS NY Area VP

Mark Velez NYS President Branch 935

Ms. Phyllis Morrissey NYS Secretary/Treasurer Branch 935

Mr. David Solomon Retired NY Metro Area VP for the USPS

President Dyer announced that Steve and Teresa Dillard were in attendance, to give a presentation, along with Jeff Goldman of Blue Cross Blue Shield and Ms. Dana Cruz of Aflac.

President Dyer introduced Steve and Teresa Dillard of Dillard Financial. She asked everyone to give them a warm NAPS greeting. Which they did. Steve and Teresa then proceeded to give a forty-five (45) minute presentation to the membership.

After Dillard Financials presentation Ms. Dana Cruz, representing Aflac, gave a brief presentation.

Following that presentation, Mr. Jimmy Warden NAPS National Secretary Treasurer spoke on a few issues such as membership, the lawsuit, NPA and teleconference behaviors. He also mentioned the form which is on the NAPS National website which can be filled out and submitted if individuals are being abusive on the teleconferences.
